Writing

A Day on a Georgian Farm

Imagine you are a Georgian farmer who is moving to the city to take a new job in a factory. Write 3–5 sentences about your day. What do you see/hear and feel?

Include: Expanded noun phrases,

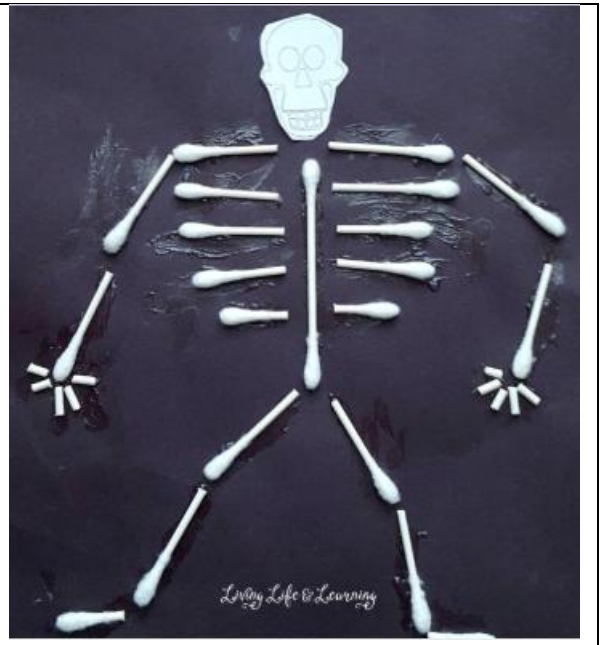

e.g. grey, cloudy smoke.

History

Choose one change that happened during Georgian times. You could choose farming, growing towns, transport or voting.

Draw two pictures showing before and after the change.

You can use multiplication, division, drawings or number sentences to explain how you worked out each answer.
Research Georgian Inventions Find out about one invention or improvement used in Georgian Britain, such as the seed drill, a canal lock or an improved steam engine. Draw a picture and find out three facts about it.	Creative Make a Mini Georgian Museum Draw or make three objects that tell us about Georgian Britain. Give each object a short label. 	Science Build a skeleton Use cotton buds, paper straws or strips of paper to create a human skeleton on a piece of card. Challenge: Can you label the skull, ribcage and leg bones?
