

Maths -

Most Anglo-Saxon people were farmers and grew their own food. However, there were skilled craftspeople that would make desirable items to swap with items of similar value. This was called trading.

 Small brooch £0.50 value	 2 clay pots £1.75 value	 Large brooch £8.00 value
 Glass bowl £18 value	 Pendant £6.75 value	 Glass beads £1 value Or 2 for £2.00

Imagine you are an Anglo-Saxon craftsperson looking to trade some of your items in exchange for crops. You have the above items available to trade with. If 1 bag of wheat was valued around £3.75 in today's money, what would be a good but reasonable deal for a trade?

Friday

MATHS OUTSIDE THE BOX

Research

What did we get from the Anglo- Saxons that we still use today?

Descriptive Writing

Choose one scene from the Bayeux Tapestry and write a report on using as many adjectives and adverbs as you can.

Reflect and write

Look at the Anglo-Saxon runes and write a secret message to tell your soldiers that William of Normani is planning an attack and wants to be king of Britania

Term 1 Griffins

The Anglo- Saxons

Story writing

Create a newspaper front page with all the features describing the Anglo- Saxons arriving in Britain on their well-built ships.

PE

Tenpole Tudor - Swords Of A Thousand Men

Create a dance for this song - use some of your family to make a battle scene

Every week you must also:

- Read your reading book.
 - Practise your times tables - join in the TTRS battles.
 - Practise your spellings
- Talk to your Mum, Dad or Carer about your homework.

Research, make and write

Draw and make an Anglo- Saxon battle mask to the real size of your face and write about how you made it. Take a picture for our board.

Persuasive Writing

Should You Join an Anglo-Saxon Village?

Write a persuasive letter encouraging someone from another land to settle in an Anglo-Saxon village.

- Highlight the fertile farmland, strong community spirit, and skilled craftsmanship.
- Downplay the risks (like Viking raids!) to make it sound appealing.

Design or Computing

How would you ask copilot to make some like this sliding tiles game? This is the instruction I used - I want a sliding box picture with an Anglo- Saxon theme Impress me - art and DT!

Tray and make a piece of jewellery in the style of what the Anglo- Saxons would have worn. Use a range of materials such as sweet wrappers to make the jewels pop.

Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6
accept except knot not peace piece plain plane weather whether	cereal serial check cheque stares stairs through threw draft draught	immature immeasurable impossible immortal imperfect impatient immovable impolite important improper	phone phonics microphone telephone homophone real reality realistic unreal realisation	non-stick non-fiction non-stop non-drip non-starter non-violent non-smoker non-profit non-believer nonsense	division invasion confusion decision collision television revision erosion inclusion explosion

These are the spellings we will be practising in class.